According to dispatches printed to-day in Rome, the Russians have received reinforcements of 20,000 men from Kizil, midway between Harbin and Mukden, and the Japanese have been reinforced by a brigade from New Chwang. Other Japanese troops are being rushed northward.

The Giornale di Roma says that Gen.

Japanese in Mighty Effort to Crush Russians at River, LATTER HOLD POSITIONS

Kuropatkin concluded his dispatch to the Czar with these words:

"WE LITERALLY EXECUTE YOUR ORDERS AND CONQUER OR DIE."

Today's reports from Mukden, the scene of the main fighting, are of a nature to assert that the Russian army is advancing, and that the Japanese left flank has been driven back with heavy loss from its position and its retreat cut off.

The line of these dispatches would indicate that the Japanese have met with serious reverses and that Kuropatkin has again resumed the offensive. Contrary to the latter, however, are lacking, and in view of the latest official dispatches from Field Marshal Oyama, regarding Japanese success, it is believed here that the Japanese have not any ground whatever, although the issue of the battle may be yet undecided. This is the 12th day of the conflict.

KUROKI'S SUCCESS.

The Mukden dispatches release the rumor of Colonel Yamada's brigade and the capture of Lone Tree Hill, both of which occurred on Sunday. There has not been a single encounter in which the Japanese were defeated, so far as dispatch from any source shows. On the contrary, the Japanese were yesterday reported to have occupied the entire line of Russian positions, with the exception of Lone Tree Hill, and Field Marshal Oyama's report made public today, reveals a victory of the Japanese right, under Kuroki. His division followed:

"Part of our right army, having crossed from Shuang-Ting-Tai, was holding the Sakhe, when a regiment of the enemy's infantry, advancing for attack, was driven back in confusion this morning, and retreated north. The enemy's heavy artillery at Watanah. The condition of the right and center armies is unchanged."

There were reports that the Japanese had captured the line of Lone Tree Hill, and the issue of Lone Tree Hill. The Russian position is absolutely dangerous as the Sakhe River, which they forced on their continued advance, is now so swollen by heavy rains and floods that it is impossible and there are no bridges. It will be difficult, if not impossible, for them to follow across the river.

The roads, cut up by artillery and washed by the heavy downpours, are impassable and the countryside is like a vast bog. Nevertheless, fighting has continued without interruption for eleven days, being resumed today all along the line.

Both armies are exhausted and lack supplies. It is the belief of military experts that the Japanese are in a better position to hold the line than the Russians. Kuropatkin's forces the Russian reserves and the Russian position is absolutely dangerous as the Sakhe River, which they forced on their continued advance, is now so swollen by heavy rains and floods that it is impossible and there are no bridges. It will be difficult, if not impossible, for them to follow across the river.

DEPENDS ON RESERVE.

Apparently the Japanese will be the first to strike again. The Russian position is absolutely dangerous as the Sakhe River, which they forced on their continued advance, is now so swollen by heavy rains and floods that it is impossible and there are no bridges. It will be difficult, if not impossible, for them to follow across the river.

YAMADA OVERWHELMED.

On the evening of October 10, a violent detachment under command of Major-General Yamada was sent to attack the Russian left army, attacking the enemy north of the Sakhe River. It commenced its operations at the right wing, driving off the enemy. The detachment captured two guns and two machine guns. The Russian army, however, was not broken. The detachment captured two guns and two machine guns. The Russian army, however, was not broken.

94,941 PUBLIC SCHOOL PUPILS FIRST MONTH

Largest Registration on Record Indicates Total for Year At 100,000.

MORE BOYS THAN GIRLS

Returns for the first month of the regular sessions of the public schools of Boston show a total registration of 94,941 pupils. Of these 49,212 are boys and 45,729 are girls. This is the largest registration on record for the first month of the year since 1905. The total will reach 100,000 by June.

The summary of the distribution of pupils in the regular day schools of Boston returned for the first month of the year 1914 is as follows:

School	Boys	Girls	Total
Normal, Latin, high	1,000	1,000	2,000
High	1,000	1,000	2,000
Intermediate	1,000	1,000	2,000
Elementary	46,212	42,729	88,941
Total	49,212	45,729	94,941

The normal school has 310 pupils, of which 150 are reported as boys and 160 as girls. This is the largest number of pupils ever admitted to this school, and is the first time that boys have been reported. Last year the total number of girls was 42,729. Now there were 45,729 girls. The largest high school for boys is the Boston Latin School, which has 1,000 pupils. The largest high school for girls is the Boston Normal School, which has 1,000 pupils.

The following comparative table, showing the ratio of boys to girls in the schools, shows that boys and girls are staying in school longer than in former years.

School	Boys	Girls	Ratio
Normal, Latin, high	1,000	1,000	1.00
High	1,000	1,000	1.00
Intermediate	1,000	1,000	1.00
Elementary	46,212	42,729	1.08
Total	49,212	45,729	1.08

ROCKEFELLER TALKS BEFORE BIG AUDIENCE

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—Three hundred young men and women listened to John D. Rockefeller, Jr., when he spoke on "The Power of Personal Initiative" before the Young People's Society of the Fifth Avenue Baptist Church, Fifth street and Fifth avenue, Mrs. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., daughter of Senator Nelson W. Aldrich, seemed to be the most interested auditor in the hall, which was literally jammed. The lecture attracted many of the fashionable set. Who crowded around the young multimillionaire to congratulate him.

"Everybody," said Mr. Rockefeller, "is faced by a certain degree of influence over his fellow men. I met a business friend the other day, in whose affairs I have been interested. He has been struggling hard to reorganize a certain deal. I asked him if he would be disappointed if the transaction failed. He looked at me quickly and said he never becomes disappointed—just goes ahead and tries again. This man's splendid courage stimulated me. He gave me a wonderful demonstration of the power of personal influence. All great men have it in a large degree and all good men have it in a small degree."

Mr. Rockefeller spoke for nearly an hour, interestingly interpreting his address with anecdotes. After he finished, a general discussion of the subject was held. The young men and women were very interested in the lecture.
